Did You Know?

- The Albright-Knox Art Gallery is the LARGEST art museum in Western New York.
- It was built over 100 YEARS AGO & is the 6th-oldest art museum in the whole United States of America!
- There are more than 10,000 works of art in their collection - that’s a lot of art!
- When it was built the museum was just called Albright Art School. In 1962, the museum was renamed the Albright-Knox after a man named Seymour H. Knox Jr.
- Knox’s son (Seymour H. Knox III) would grow up & become the first owner of The Buffalo Sabres!
